

Works Cited

1. Country statistical profile: Finland. (2013). <http://dx.doi.org/10.1787/20752288-table-fin>
2. FINHEEC. (n.d.). About FINHEEC. Retrieved December 13, 2013, from Korkeakoulujen arviointineuvosto website: <http://www.finheec.fi/index.phtml?l=en&s=29>
3. Finnish Higher Education Evaluation Council . (2007). Audit Manual for 2008-2011. In Audits of Quality Assurance Systems of Finnish Higher Education Institutions. Retrieved December 13, 2013, from http://www.kka.fi/files/147/KKA\_1007.pdf
4. Imperial War Museums (IWM). (1940, January 12). The War in Finland [Photograph]. MINISTRY OF INFORMATION SECOND WORLD WAR PRESS AGENCY PRINT COLLECTION. Retrieved from <http://www.iwm.org.uk/collections/search?f%5B0%5D=makerString%3AFinnish%20official%20photographer&query=>
5. Kalevalaseura. (n.d.). KALEVALA. Retrieved December 13, 2013, from Finnish Literature Society website: <http://www.finlit.fi/kalevala/index.php?m=163&l=2>
6. Kymen, K. (2011). Teacher Qualifications. Retrieved from http://www.helsinki.fi/palmenia/kotka/opettajaksi/eng\_screen.pdf
7. OECD/PISA. (2010). Finland: Slow and Steady Reform for Consistently High Results. Strong Performers and Successful Reformers in Education: Lessons from the PISA for the United States, 5. Retrieved December 13, 2013, from <http://www.oecd.org/pisa/pisaproducts/46581035.pdf>
8. Organization Chart [Fact sheet]. (n.d.). Retrieved December 13, 2013, from Parliament of Finland website: <http://web.eduskunta.fi/Resource.phx/parliament/aboutparliament/organizationchart.htx?ct=eb1>
9. Sahlberg, P. (2009, April). A short history of educational reform in Finland. European Training Foundation.
10. UNESCO-IBE. (2011). World Data on Education: World Data on Education: Finland (7th ed.) [PDF]. <http://dx.doi.org/12/13/2013>